COMPLAINT

COLLECTIVE ACTION UNDER 29 U.S.C. § 216(b)

ECF Case

Plaintiffs Juan Carlos De Jesus Rodriguez, Luis Lliguin and Mario Gomez individually and on behalf of others similarly situated (collectively the "Plaintiffs"), by and through their attorneys, Michael Faillace & Associates, P.C., upon their knowledge and belief, and as against Defendants Obam Management Inc. (d/b/a Pita Grill), Pita Grill Murray Hill, LLC (d/b/a Pita Grill), PitaGrillNYC Corp., (d/b/a/ Pita Grill), Pita Grill of NY Inc., Opher Beytonb and Bennett Orfaly (collectively the "Defendants") allege as follows:

NATURE OF THE ACTION

1. Plaintiffs are former employees of OBAM Management Inc., Pita Grill Murray Hill LLC, PitaGrillNYC Corp. Pita Grill of NY Inc., Opher Beytonb and Bennett Orfaly.

2. Defendants own, operate, or control a chain of fast-food restaurants operating under the trade name Pita Grill in New York City.

3. Plaintiffs worked at Pita Grill restaurants located at 441 Third Avenue, New York, New York 10016 ("Pita Grill Third Avenue"), 1083 Second Avenue, New York New York 10022 ("Pita Grill 57th Street") and 92 Eighth Avenue, New York, New York, 10011 ("Pita Grill Chelsea").

4. Upon information and belief, Individual Defendants Opher Beytonb and Bennett Orfaly serve or served as owner, manager, principal or agent of Defendant Pita Grill, and through the corporate entities operate or operated the restaurants as a joint or unified enterprise.

5. Plaintiffs are former employees of Defendants. They were ostensibly employed as delivery workers. However, the daily work performed by each Plaintiff entailed additional responsibilities that were not related to deliveries.

6. At all times relevant to this complaint, Plaintiffs worked for Defendants in excess of 40 hours per week, without appropriate compensation for the hours over 40 per week that they worked.

7. Rather, Defendants failed to maintain accurate recordkeeping of their hours worked, failed to pay Plaintiffs appropriately for any hours worked over 40, either at the straight rate of pay, or for any additional overtime premium.

8. Further, Defendants failed to pay Plaintiffs the required "spread of hours" pay for any day in which they had to work over 10 hours a day.

9. Defendants employed and accounted for several Plaintiffs as delivery workers in their payroll, but in actuality their duties included greater or equal time spent in non-delivery, non-tipped functions such as vacuuming, sweeping and mopping the main room and the basement; cleaning the kitchen, refrigerators and bathroom; washing the sidewalk; receiving and stocking deliveries of vegetables, cutting vegetables and meats, cleaning the walls of the entire restaurant including the basement, cleaning the grill, dishwashing, cooking pots and other kitchen utensils and stocking vegetables into the main refrigerator (hereafter "non-tipped and non-delivery duties").

10. At all times, regardless of duties, Defendants paid delivery workers at the lowered tip-credited rate.

11. However, under both the FLSA and NYLL Defendants were not entitled to take a tip credit because these Plaintiffs' non-tipped duties exceeded 20% of each workday, or 2 hours per day (whichever was less in each day) (12 N.Y.C.R.R. §146).

12. Upon information and belief, Defendants employed the policy and practice of disguising Plaintiffs' actual duties in payroll records to avoid paying Plaintiffs at the minimum wage rate, and to enable them to pay Plaintiffs at the lower tip-credited rate by designating them delivery workers instead of non-tipped employees.

13. Defendants' conduct extended beyond the Plaintiffs to all other similarly situated employees. At all times relevant to this complaint, Defendants maintained a policy and practice of requiring Plaintiffs and other employees to work in excess of forty (40) hours per week without providing the minimum wage and overtime compensation required by federal and state law and regulations.

14. Plaintiffs now bring this action on behalf of themselves, and other similarly situated individuals, for unpaid minimum wages and overtime wage orders pursuant to the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, 29 U.S.C. § 201 et seq. ("FLSA"), and for violations of the N.Y. Lab. Law §§ 190 et seq. and 650 et seq. (the "NYLL"), and the "spread of hours" and overtime wage orders of the New York Commission of Labor codified at N.Y. COMP. CODES R. & REGS. Tit. 12, § 137-1.7 (2006) (herein the "Spread of Hours Wage Order"), including applicable liquidated damages, interest, attorneys' fees, and costs.

15. Plaintiffs seek certification of this action as a collective action on behalf of themselves, individually, and all other similarly situated employees and former employees of the Defendants pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b).

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

16. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. § 1331 (federal question) and the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, 29 U.S.C. §§ 201 et seq. ("FLSA"), and supplemental jurisdiction over Plaintiffs' state law claims is conferred by 28 U.S.C. § 1367(a).

17. Venue is proper in this District under 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b) and (c) because all or a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to the claims occurred in this district. The Defendants maintain their corporate headquarters and offices within this district, and Defendants restaurants operate and are located in this district. Further, Plaintiffs were employed by Defendants in this district.

56. Defendants did not provide Plaintiff De Jesus Rodriguez with each payment of wages a statement of wages, as required by NYLL 195(3).

57. No notification, either in the form of posted notices, or other means, was ever given to Plaintiff De Jesus Rodriguez regarding overtime and wages under the FLSA and NYLL.

58. Defendants did not give any notice to Plaintiff De Jesus Rodriguez, in English and in Spanish (Plaintiff De Jesus Rodriguez's primary language), of his rate of pay, employer's regular pay day, and such other information as required by NYLL §195(1).

Plaintiff Luis Lliguin

59. Plaintiff Lliguin was employed by the Defendants from approximately May 2009 until September 2012.

60. Defendants ostensibly employed Plaintiff Lliguin as a delivery worker. However, Plaintiff Lliguin was also required to perform the non-delivery, non-tipped functions described above.

69. Plaintiff Lliguin received a check for the first 40 hours and cash for the hours over 40 at the base rate.

70. Defendants granted Plaintiff Lliguin 15 minute breaks or meal periods. However, every Monday when a large delivery arrived, Mr. Lliguin did not take a break and had to work an extra 20 unpaid minutes.

71. Defendants never notified Plaintiff Lliguin that his tips would be included as an offset for wages.

72. Furthermore, Defendants did not provide Plaintiff Lliguin with each payment of wages a statement of wages, as required by NYLL 195(3).

73. No notification, either in the form of posted notices, or other means, was ever given to Plaintiff Lliguin regarding overtime and wages under the FLSA and NYLL.

74. Defendants did not give any notice to Plaintiff Lliguin, in English and in Spanish (Plaintiff Lliguin's primary language), of his rate of pay, employer's regular pay day, and such other information as required by NYLL §195(1).

83. From approximately mid-April 2012 until August 2012, Plaintiff Gomez worked from 12:00 p.m. until 12:30 a.m. four days a week and one day from 10am to 5pm. (Typically 57 hours per week).

84. From approximately March 2012 until August 2012, Plaintiff Gomez was paid $5.00 per hour.

85. Throughout his employment with the Defendants, Plaintiff Gomez was paid his wages by check.

86. Defendants never notified Plaintiff Gomez that his tips would be included as an offset for wages.

87. Defendants did not account for these tips in any daily, weekly, or other accounting of Plaintiff Gomez's wages.

88. Furthermore, Defendants did not provide Plaintiff Gomez with each payment of wages a statement of wages, as required by NYLL 195(3).

89. No notification, either in the form of posted notices, or other means, was ever given to Plaintiff Gomez regarding overtime and wages under the FLSA and NYLL.

90. Defendants did not give any notice to Plaintiff Gomez, in English and in Spanish (Plaintiff Gomez's primary language), of his rate of pay, employer's regular pay day, and such other information as required by NYLL §195(1).

91. Defendants required Plaintiff Gomez to purchase "tools of the trade" with his own funds—including a bicycle for $250, and a lock and helmet for $35 each. Thus, the total cost of the "tools of the trade" Plaintiff Gomez was required to purchase as a delivery worker was approximately $320.

Defendants' General Employment Practices

92. Defendants regularly required Plaintiffs to work in excess of forty (40) hours per week without paying them the proper minimum and overtime wages or spread of hours compensation.

93. At all times relevant to this complaint, Defendants maintained a policy and practice of requiring the Plaintiffs and all similarly situated employees to work in excess of forty (40) hours per week without paying them appropriate minimum wage and/or overtime compensation, or spread of hours compensation, as required by federal and state laws.

94. Defendants' pay practices resulted in Plaintiffs not receiving payment for all their hours worked, resulting in Plaintiffs' effective rate of pay falling below the required minimum and overtime wage rate.

95. Defendants failed to post required wage and hour posters in the restaurant, and did not provide Plaintiffs with statutorily required wage and hour records or statements of their pay received, in part so as to hide Defendants' violations of the wage and hour laws, and to take advantage of Plaintiffs' relative lack of sophistication in wage and hour laws.

96. Upon information and belief, these practices by Defendants were done willfully to disguise the actual number of hours Plaintiffs (and similarly situated individuals) worked, and to avoid paying Plaintiffs properly for (1) their full hours worked, (2) for overtime due, and (3) for spread of hours pay.

97. Defendants also failed to post at the workplace, or otherwise provide to employees, the required postings or notices to employees regarding the applicable wage and hour requirements of the FLSA and NYLL.

98. Defendants failed to inform Plaintiffs who received tips that Defendants intended to take a deduction against Plaintiffs' earned wages for tip income, as required by the NYLL before any deduction may be taken.

99. Defendants failed to inform Plaintiffs that their tips would be credited towards the payment of the minimum wage.

100. Defendants failed to maintain a record of tips earned by Plaintiffs for the deliveries they made to customers.

101. Moreover, at all times Defendants required Plaintiffs who were tipped employees such as delivery workers to perform the jobs of multiple employees in addition to their primary responsibilities. These additional, non-related, and non-tipped duties occupied more than two hours of each Plaintiff's workday.

102. Defendants paid these Plaintiffs at the lowered tip-credited rate, however Defendants were not entitled to a tip credit because Plaintiffs' non-tipped duties exceeded 20% of each workday (or 2 hours a day, whichever was less) (12 N.Y.C.R.R. § 146). Many Plaintiffs were employed ostensibly as delivery workers (tipped employees) by Defendants, although their actual duties included non-tipped and non-delivery duties

103. New York State regulations provide that an employee cannot be classified as a tipped employee "on any day.. in which he has been assigned to work in an occupation in which tips are not customarily received." (12 N.Y.C.R.R. §§137-3.3 and 137-3.4). Similarly, under federal regulation 29 C.F.R. §531.56 (e), an employer may not take a tip credit for any employee time if that time is devoted to a non-tipped occupation.

104. Plaintiffs' non-delivery duties were not incidental to their occupation as delivery workers, but instead constituted entirely unrelated occupations.

105. Since Plaintiffs spent more than 2 hours of their workday in non-tipped, non-delivery functions, Defendants were not entitled to take a tip credit with respect to their wages.

106. In violation of federal and state law as codified above, Defendants classified Plaintiffs as tipped employees and paid them below minimum wage when they should have classified them as non-tipped employees and paid them at the minimum wage rate for all the hours they worked.

107. Defendants employed several Plaintiffs as delivery workers and required them to provide their own locks, chains and bicycles, and refused to compensate them or reimburse them for these expenses.

108. Defendants did not provide Plaintiffs, and similarly situated employees. with the wage statements and annual pay notices required by NYLL §§195(1) and 195(3).

109. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiffs and other employees with wage statements at the time of payment of wages, containing: the dates of work covered by that payment of wages; name of employee; name of employer; address and phone number of employer; rate or rates of pay and basis thereof, whether paid by the hour, shift, day, week, salary, piece, commission, or other; gross wages; deductions; allowances, if any, claimed as part of the minimum wage; net wages; the regular hourly rate or rates of pay; the overtime rate or rates of pay; the number of regular hours worked, and the number of overtime hours worked, as required by NYLL §195(3).

110. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiffs and other employees, at the time of hiring and on or before February 1 of each subsequent year, a statement in English and the employees' primary language, containing: the rate or rates of pay and basis thereof, whether paid by the hour, shift, day, week, salary, piece, commission, or other; allowances, if any, claimed as part of the minimum wage, including tip, meal, or lodging allowances; the regular pay day designated by the employer; the name of the employer; any "doing business as" names used by the employer; the physical address of the employer's main office or principal place of business, and a mailing address if different; and the telephone number of the employer, as required by New York Labor Law §195(1).

Plaintiffs bring their FLSA minimum wage, overtime, and liquidated damages claims as a collective action pursuant to FLSA Section 16(b), 29 U.S.C. § 216(b), on behalf of all similarly situated persons who are or were employed by Defendants or any of them, on or after the date that is three years before the filing of the complaint in this case (the "FLSA Class Period"), as employees of Defendants (the "FLSA Class").
